Web Master Report - Jim Landry:

Posted Terry's woodworking classes schedule for the Fall of 2018 and the Spring of 2019.

Posted the Help and Guidance List on the Members Only page. This is a list of members that can be contacted for help and/or advise.

Updated the Club's bylaws to include the Educational Outreach coordinator as a member of the Executive Committee.

Vice President Report - Mark Monistere

Planning for the Club's 2019 meetings and skill topics starts this month. If you have a topic you would like to have considered or if you are will to present a topic please contact Mark.

On October 7th (Sunday) the Rural Life Museum (Harvest Days) and the West Rouge Museum (Sugarfest) both have events scheduled. The club is involved in both. There is a need for members at the West Baton Rouge Museum. The same problem presents itself again in December with Christmas events. Please contact Mark if you are willing to help.

At the WBR Museum's Sugarfest, club members will be allowed to display and sell items that they have made.

Service Projects Report - Lee Owens

VOA - The VOA is relocating the Child Care Education department and needs some help repurposing some rooms in their new location.

Over the tub cabinet was built at Terry's shop by Alvin, Terry, Jack and Hays. Has been installed successfully.

Dumas House - Jeff Springer

Swings have been picked up, disassembled and identified pieces to use a patterns. Should be completed in August.

Salvation Army Picnic Table Build - project had been put on hold and may be canceled.

Lighthouse for the Blind - Ray Shook and Lee Owens

Need a large number cabinets for their sales room. The lay-out and size of the cabinets is to be determined. A sign up sheet was passed around for anyone interested and for shops that can be used. If you are interested, please contact Lee.

Heritage Ranch - Jack Carmena

This is a facility in Zachary for troubled youths. They have ask for the clubs help and are in the process of compiling and prioritizing a list of items they need that they hope the club can help with.

New Business - Bob Chambers

There will be an Executive Committee meeting after this meeting.

At the last Executive Committee meeting we discussed the growing size of the club and how to handle the increased numbers at our monthly meetings. The committee decided that in 2019 the monthly meetings that had skill topics that did not require power tools would be held at larger locations (WBR Museum, Rural Life Museum or PMC) if possible.
